TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF BOOKING for SECURITY TRAINING

DEFINITIONS OF TERMS

“The Company” or “us”: Geni-ax Worldwide Network Ltd and all their partners and associates.

“You”: the person who makes the booking with Geni-ax Worldwide Network Ltd

“Candidates”: All members of the group attending the training course including any spectators.

“Facilities”: All facilities at which your training course is held.

1. CONTRACT

A binding contract is only entered into after we have received payment from you, in cleared funds, of either the required deposit or the whole agreed course price, and we have issued a written confirmation via email or letter. It is essential that, upon receipt of our confirmation, you check the details we have confirmed and notify us immediately of any errors. Where this is not done, and there is an unreasonable delay in notifying any apparent discrepancies in the confirmed arrangements, we will not be responsible for any charges that may arise as a result of alterations that have to be made to the course booking.

2. INSURANCE

It is advisable to have travel insurance for foreign courses, for the duration of your stay in a particular country. The course providers take all necessary action to ensure the safe execution of all tasks relating to the course; however, we take no responsibility for any injuries sustained during your stay in that particular country. You agree to be covered with your own medical insurance throughout all practical activities for Close Protection and Firearms training courses you attend.

3. INFORMATION

Whilst we make every effort to ensure that the information contained on our website and within any of our promotional material, is accurate and not misleading, it may be subject to change. We reserve the right to make changes to the website and any information it contains at any time. Where material changes are made to any promotional content after your course has been booked, every effort will be made to advise of such changes prior to the start of the course or as soon as is possible.

4. DESCRIPTIONS PROVIDED IN PROMOTIONAL MATERIALS

The descriptions of the training courses offered on the company's website and other promotional materials are stated in good faith but occasionally it may be required to make some alterations to schedules, equipment, instructors and/or the facilities used. The Company reserves the right to make minor changes to events without notice. If there is a particular aspect of the training course, or piece of equipment, that is critical to you please contact us prior your departure and check to avoid disappointment.

Paypal: isasecurityacademy@gmail.com

5. WEATHER CONDITIONS

The company's training courses are held throughout the year and in a wide range of weather conditions. Unless weather conditions are extreme enough to warrant serious safety concerns, (such as during a hurricane) training courses are rarely cancelled by the Company. In such an event, either the Company or its representatives will contact you by telephone to notify you. If you are unsure as to whether the event is cancelled you should call either the Company or its representative in the location, before deciding to terminate your trip to the training venue. If you decide to discontinue the training course due to poor weather without checking with the Company first, you will be considered to have voluntarily cancelled the training course (see cancellation policy). It is your responsibility to wear appropriate footwear and clothing for the time of year, especially if the event is held outdoors.

6. PRICES

All advertised prices quoted by our staff before booking, or shown in any of our publicity material, are for guidance only and may be subject to change prior to the confirmation of your booking. We reserve the right to increase (surcharge) the price of your booking after it has been made. Such price increases are limited to those resulting from:

- Increases in transportation costs (including fuel and air fares)
- Dues
- Taxes
- Fees chargeable for services (including security fees)
- Government action or exchange rate fluctuation

As we operate in a diverse range of destinations, at different times, we will notify you of the purchasing exchange rate if any surcharge occurs.

7. PAYMENT

Payment Terms

1. In order to secure your course, you must pay Geni-ax Worldwide Network Ltd the appropriate costs in full at least one month before the course starting date. In all cases, in order to make a booking, the payment has to be made as soon as possible in order to secure your place at the course. Payment must be made in Pound Sterling or you will be responsible for any bank charges that may be incurred due to currency exchange rates, unless you have made specific agreement with us for paying in a different currency. Payment for your course can be made by bank transfer, debit or credit card and cash. In all cases, a booking will not be confirmed until we are in receipt of cleared funds. Where payment is made by credit card, we reserve the right to pass on the relevant bank processing fee (between 0%-3%) when your deposit and balance payments are made.

2. A reservation without payment is not a confirmed booking. Candidates will be allowed to join the training depending on the size of the class available if the class is full, learners can be asked to attend the following course.

3. Geni-ax Worldwide Network Ltd reserves the right to change prices without notice.

Refunds Policy

2.1. If an individual candidate is unable to attend on the scheduled course date reserved, the candidate should notify Geni-ax Worldwide Network Ltd at least 7 days in advance. If they do so, Geni-ax Worldwide Network Ltd will agree an alternative course date with the candidate for any course date in the next 12 months, subject to availability, provided that the full course price has been paid.

2.2. If a candidate fails to inform us by phone or email in advance of inability to attend on the course date reserved, then a re-booking will have to be made.

2.3. Geni-ax Worldwide Network Ltd operates the non - refund policy in respect of the cancellation of individual course bookings, but an alternative course date can be arranged by agreement, provided that the full payment has been made by the candidate.

2.4. If we change your course:

In the unlikely event it becomes necessary to change your course, in total or in part, Geni-ax Worldwide Network Ltd will inform you as soon as is reasonably practicable of any necessary changes. You shall have the option of:

- (a) Accepting the changed arrangements;
- (b) Or purchasing another course from Geni-ax Worldwide Network Ltd (and paying any differences between the prices, no refund applies.)

3. Delay or Failure to Perform on our part:

We shall not be liable to you if we are prevented or delayed in the performing of any of our obligations to you if this is due to any cause beyond our reasonable control including but not limited to (Force Majeure):

- (a). An act of God, natural or nuclear disaster, explosion, flood, fire or accident; adverse weather conditions, levels of water in rivers,
- (b) War or civil disturbance; terrorist activity (actual or threatened)
- (c) Strike, industrial action or stoppages of work;
- (d) Any form of government intervention;
- (e) A third party act or omission;
- (d) Technical or maintenance problems with transport, machinery or equipment, power failure, closure of airports, changes of schedules or operational decisions of transport providers
- (f) Failure by you to give us a correct delivery address or notify us of any change of address and/or contact details. The company's training courses should not be viewed as substantial elements of any holiday or business trip, and should under no circumstances be booked as the prime or principal reason for booking any holiday or business trip. The company's maximum liability is limited to the total price paid for the training course and cannot be held liable for any other compensation relating to such a cancellation, for example, (but not limited to) flights, hotels, or general travelling expenses associated with you or your group's overall holiday or business trip.

4. We do not participate, support or sponsor any type of entry visas to UK or any other country in order to attend out training. Visas issues will not be considered as grounds for refund or cancellation.

Cancellation Policy

Cancellation of your training course will only be accepted if it is received in writing either by email, or recorded letter. Cancellation refers to the cancellation of the whole training course.

ACADEMIA INTERNACIONAL

www. seguridadacademia.com
Paypal: isasecurityacademy@gmail.com

a) If the Company receives notice that you wish to cancel your reservation the Company reserves the right to retain 100 per cent of the amount you have paid towards the training course at the time of cancellation as a cancellation fee.

b) Lateness and/or "No-show"

If you are more than 60 minutes late in meeting prior to the briefing the company's representative whether that is the representative meeting the group at the airport, at the hotel, or (if transport is not included in the event) the instructor at the training venue, the Company will deem the event to have been cancelled and reserves the right to retain 100 per cent of the total value of the event as a cancellation fee.

We do not participate, support or sponsor any type of entry visas to UK or any other country in order to attend out training. Visas issues will not be considered as grounds for refund or cancellation.

Amendment

Whilst we endeavour to prevent this as described above, it is occasionally necessary for us to make changes to booked arrangements. In exceptional circumstances, we may be required to change your course arrangements after the booking has been confirmed.

If the change is minor we will do our best to notify you in advance of your start date, but we are not obliged to do so, and no compensation will be payable. If the change is material (including, but not limited to, change of destination, removal of entire activities or change of accommodation) we will notify you as soon as practically possible and offer you the choice of:

- (i) Accepting the alternative arrangements
 - (ii) Arranging an alternative course with us
 - (iii) Cancelling your course
- Regardless of the option you choose we will refund the fees unless such change has been caused by Force Majeure.

Amendment during the course

If we are unable to provide any single part of your course, suitable arrangements, of as equal equality as possible will be made for you at no extra cost. Should we be unable to provide a significant proportion of your course we will endeavour to do the same or you will be given a pro-rate/proportionate refund for any part of course not received.

This does not apply to minor changes in your accommodation or course arrangements.

Cancellation by us

Whilst we hope we will never have to cancel your course, this is extremely occasionally necessary, and we reserve the right to do so in any such case we will endeavour to offer suitable alternative arrangements of a comparable or better standard, or hold your payment on account for use with us at a later date.

8. OUR PROMISE TO YOU.

1. Geni-ax Worldwide Network Ltd shall ensure that all services you order from us are in accordance with these terms and conditions and shall be performed by us with all reasonable skill, care and utmost professionalism.
2. Where an element of your course is not provided as stated in the course instructions you must notify us within 28 days of the alleged breach. We shall then investigate the matter, and if we have not delivered the services in accordance with the course content, objectives and guidelines you shall be entitled to:

- A full refund of the cost of your course (or, where appropriate, the relevant section of it) less any fees charged for changes requested by you;
 - Or a free course to the equivalent value of the services complained of, where such dates are agreed in writing by us.
3. We will not be liable to you by way of representation (unless fraudulent), common law duty or under any express or implied term of the contract for:
- Any losses, which are not, foreseeable by both you and us, when the Contract is formed arising in connection with the supply of the services or their use by you;
 - Any losses, which are not, caused by any breach by us; business or trade losses.
4. Our entire liability in connection with training and auditing services will not exceed the purchase price of the services booked.
5. Except in relation to death or personal injury caused by our negligence Geni-ax Worldwide Network Ltd's liability remains, at all times, limited to the value of the services booked, excluding any amendment charges paid to us.
6. Disruption of teaching times
- Where the training centre is closed for an extended period during normal teaching time, interrupting the provision of normal teaching the following applies:
- Where there is disruption to teaching time and the training centre remain open but either: Individual students miss teaching and learning time, or Significant numbers of students miss teaching and learning time, then the training centre would facilitate alternative methods of learning. This may include the use of online tools to forward learning materials to candidates.
- In special cases, the training centre may advise candidates to sit examinations at an alternative series. Where the centre is closed during the examination period, then the centre may arrange for alternative venues.

Excursions and activities

We endeavour to ensure that all activities and excursions that form part of your course package are sourced from responsible and reliable suppliers and of the highest quality. Such excursions and/or activities will be booked and paid for in advance but may be subject to change.

Event arrangements

Your course may include attendance at a 3rd party event as part of the package. Whilst unusual for changes to be made to such events we accept no responsibility to refund or compensate where such changes are made due to reasons beyond our control. We will, however, make every effort to ensure the event still meets your requirements or endeavour to find a suitable replacement.

In the unlikely event of the complete cancellation of an event, we will again endeavour to find a suitable replacement.

Our responsibilities to you

We endeavour to ensure that we use all reasonable skill and care in our selection of the parties involved in the preparation and supply of your course. Please remember that the appropriate standards will be those prevalent in your course destination, however;

(a) We accept no liability to you for:

- any circumstance arising from fault on your part or the part
- any circumstance arising from fault on the part of someone not connected with the provision of the booked course and/or its various components
- any circumstance which arises due to unusual or unexpected circumstances beyond our reasonable control which could not have been avoided
- any circumstance which arises due to an event which we or the supplier of any service could not anticipate, expect or reasonably prevent

(b) Any acceptance of liability is subject to you agreeing to assign to us your rights against any third party responsible for the events leading to your claim and to you affording us all necessary assistance in pursuing that claim.

9. YOUR GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES IN RELATION TO THE COURSE

You are responsible for your actions for the duration of the course. It is expected that you conduct yourself in a professional and respectful manner at all times adhering to the ground rules set out by your training provider and training staff and also UK civil and criminal law. Any misconduct may result in disciplinary action that may result in exclusion or dismissal from the course and police intervention.

Minimum Age Limits

The person making the booking must in all cases be 20 years or older.

Behaviour

Due to the nature of certain activities that make up our courses we reserve the right for any member of our staff to remove you from an activity, or an entire course, should your behaviour be deemed a danger to them, yourself or others.

1. Geni-ax Worldwide Network Ltd expects a high standard of behavior from candidates sitting on courses. You have a duty of care to other candidates, instructors and staff.
2. Appear for the course in decent dressing.
3. If your behavior is deemed to be unacceptable, or causes damage, your course may be terminated, and you may be asked to leave the premises. Your application form and contact details will be retained pending further enquiry.

4. No whole or part refunds will be made under these circumstances.

Geni-ax Worldwide Network Ltd define work-related violence as: any incident in which an employee is abused, threatened or assaulted by a member of the public in circumstances arising out of the course of his/her employment. This is based on the Health and Safety Executive's definition. We have zero tolerance policy to work-related violence and abuse. Our staff should report any instances of violence, threats or abuse, including any details about when it happened, who was involved and any relevant circumstances that may have contributed to the incident. Any candidate found to be encouraging or inciting violence may be subject to immediate dismissal without a right to refund of their fee. The company management reserves the right to terminate a trainee's participation for disciplinary reasons.

In the case of your removal from an activity or course, we accept no responsibility to cover any costs incurred to you. We also reserve the right to pass any costs incurred on to you through your removal. We will always pursue compensation through the necessary legal processes should your behaviour result in damage or injury to our property or staff.

Behaviour that may result in disciplinary action and/or exclusion from the course includes;

- Entering any training venue whilst intoxicated.
- The taking of any alcoholic beverages onto training premises without the express consent of the training providers or instructors.
- The bringing of any equipment into/onto any training venue/premises without the consent of the training provider or training staff.
- Unlawful appropriation of property belonging to another either on the training premises or any other venue/location used for training purposes.
- The taking of any course material or equipment without consent from the training provider or instructors.
- The use of any controlled substances (, not including prescription medication allocated to you. The use of prescription medication MUST be brought to the attention of the course provider and/or the instructors prior to the start of the course)
- The damage of any vehicle, training venue or any materials provided for use during the course.
- Allowing access to any training venue used to unauthorised persons including friends and family members.
- To behave in a manner that may be deemed violent or aggressive towards any member of public, fellow students, any member of training or provider staff (The laws on self-defence still apply and any violent incident will be referred to the police and unlawful use of force may result in your exclusion from the course)
- Inappropriate/negligent use of any vehicles provided during the course resulting in damage or injury. Pending the outcome of an investigation into the cause, this may result in the insurance excess being charged to you which is set at no less than £1000.00.

Personal Ability

The course is designed to teach individuals how to undertake work in a safe and competent way. Although no formal qualifications are required, individuals need to have the capacity to read and write and the physical ability to undertake and perform the physical skills required. The language of all our courses is English. All students will be expected to speak at all times in English, except where it may be of benefit educationally.

Personal Fitness

Our courses require you to be in good physical condition. Therefore, if you do have any physical impairment which you feel may compromise your ability to undertake the course, please seek the advice of a medical professional before attending and inform the training provider. Any concerns about a delegate's physical ability or competence to undertake the training will be brought to the individual's attention by the coaching staff.

Medical

All delegates are required to complete a medical questionnaire prior to commencing the course. All injuries, past and present, must be disclosed, including any medication currently prescribed and/or being taken. The coaching staff reserve the right to exclude from the course any individual who the staff has reason to believe may be unsuitable for training on the basis of health or physical ability.

Punctuality

The course schedule is extremely intense, and time is of the essence. Therefore, you must ensure that you are on time for each session. Failing to do so may result in disciplinary action and/or exclusion from the course. This includes arrival on day the course commences. Lateness and failure to attend training on non-residential courses; the acceptability of lateness and the reason given will be assessed by instructors on a case by case basis. Absence from training sessions without valid reason or impacting on a student or the courses progress will be subject to dismissal from the course.

Personal Hygiene:

Due to the nature of the training we will all be working in proximity to one another, and making physical contact. Therefore, it is imperative that personal hygiene is of a decent standard. Nails are to be short and clean.

Jewellery

For personal safety reasons, all jewellery must be removed prior to any training commencing. Where an item of jewellery cannot be removed (i.e.: wedding rings) it may be required to be covered dependent on its construction and style. It is your responsibility to ensure this has taken place prior to the commencement of any physical exercise.

Pregnancy

Pregnant women shall not be allowed to undertake any sort of physical intervention training with us, therefore, those of our courses that involve this activity will not be available during any stage of pregnancy. Those of female candidates that get pregnant after placing their booking are obliged not to attend their course before the birth giving. Special arrangements will be made to allow transferring their participation within any available dates chosen by the candidate after birth giving. Those choosing to participate in our physical intervention training courses whilst pregnant without informing us about it do so entirely at their own risk.

At the time of writing there is some evidence to suggest that shooting firearms whilst pregnant may damage the hearing of unborn babies. Therefore, we strongly discourage pregnant women from participating in our shooting events, or if spectating, from entering the immediate live fire area where hearing protection is mandatory. Under UK law, we cannot ask customers if they are pregnant at the time of booking, but you should be aware that shooting ranges used by the Company abroad will not allow pregnant women to shoot because of the possibility of damage to the hearing of unborn babies. Those choosing to participate in our shooting events whilst pregnant do so entirely at their own risk. Those of female candidates that get pregnant after placing their booking are advised not to attend their course before the birth giving.

Drugs and Alcohol

Geni-ax Worldwide Network Ltd operates a drug-free training culture. Therefore, any Individual who is caught taking illegal on un-prescribed drugs to artificially to enhance their performance, or found to be in possession of such items, will be removed from the course, and if necessary reported to the Police. In addition, any person who has (or has had in the recent past [last 12 months]) a drug dependency (including recovering drug abusers) must bring this to the attention of the course tutors prior to the course commencing. Failure to do so may result in the individual being removed from the course. , Any candidate who is under the influence of alcohol or drugs, or appears in the judgement of instructors to be, will be excluded from the training course for the whole duration of it for the safety of their own and others. No refund will be made to those who are excluded from the training course for this reason.

Prohibited person

By accepting these terms and conditions you accept responsibility for confirming that you are not prohibited under any laws from using firearms, nor have a history of serious alcohol and/or substance abuse, nor are suffering from mental illness including depression nor have a criminal record. You agree with the fact that foreign countries licensing process may differ to UK and with the fact that should your CRB contain convictions older than 5 years you may be refused security or close protection license and/or firearms certificate.

Special requests

We will endeavour to meet any specific requests received prior to the start of your course as best we can, however, we cannot guarantee to meet such requests. In any case, you should notify us of any special requests in writing and as long before your course start date as possible, in order to allow us to try and accommodate them best.

Driving the company's vehicles:

The company does not take responsibility for charges and fines incurred by the candidates during the course due to irresponsible driving or breaking relevant laws or the Highway Code. The driver or of the vehicle at the time of the contravention will be responsible for any legal costs. Geni-ax Worldwide Network Ltd will seek to retrieve any cost such an act will cause.

All candidates should remember to follow the company's guidelines:

Never break the law on the road during this course

Keep calm and polite towards others on the road

Always double check where you are about to park!

We are not prepared to pay for your fines

Drive carefully or do not drive at all – our policy is not to cover any damages caused by negligence!

Car log – notebook in every car – sign in and out

Car register: make, model, plate number list

Photocopies of id's and driving licenses

Geni-ax Worldwide Network Ltd. will seek to recover any expenses incurred by student inaction, negligence or misuse.

Personal Safety Equipment:

Delegates may bring appropriate and suitable equipment for use during the training, including; wrist supports, gum shields, groin protectors, etc. All such items, however, must be declared to the training staff prior to the start of the course. Where the equipment is unsuitable, the coaching staff reserves the right to restrict its use.

General rules applying to requirements for undertaking the training course with us.

Safety on the training facilities:

For the safety of all candidates any behavior at the training venue deemed to be unsafe by instructors, whether intentional or unintentional, will not be acceptable. If an instructor believes that the behavior of one or more candidates is a risk to others, he or she will be excluded from the training course for the whole duration of it. No refund will be made for candidates who are excluded from the training course for this reason.

Venues safety procedures must be respected at all times. You will receive a safety briefing which you must obey. If any of candidates are unsure about anything in this safety briefing or anything else regarding venue safety, you must ask your instructor.

Ear and eye protection are provided at no extra charge at all of our shooting events and must be worn at all times whilst live firing is in progress. This applies whether you are shooting or observing.

The Company takes care only to select the best shooting ranges with the safest instructors, but we can provide no absolute guarantee of the day-to-day safety management and accept no responsibility for any damage to the candidates or their property, or damage that they may do to third persons or property.

Failure to abide by the above rules and regulations will result in dismissal from the dormitory. By booking to your course, you acknowledge that you have read these Rules and Regulations and agree to abide by them.

Identification

All of the shooting ranges we use require a valid photo identification such as a passport or drivers licence for each member of the group handling firearms. This identification may be held as security by range staff for the duration of the event and is returned upon completion of the session. If any members of the group does not bring their valid photo identification to the range, he or she will not be allowed to take part in the event. All candidates are requested to check that they have their identification with them before they set out for the range. Refunds cannot be made for individuals who fail to bring valid identification and criminal disclosure.

Our advanced programmes are involving significant elements of firearms training, which is why, we require the full name, date of birth, and passport number for each applicant at the time of booking. We will also need to take a single copy of the photo page of all attendee's passports upon arrival at the shooting range for our records as evidence that identity has been properly verified by our staff.

10. YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Confidentiality

Any information collected in the application process is treated in confidence and will not be transferred to any outside party other than on a extremely strict need-to-know basis.

To be specific, your name and your mobile telephone number will be sent to the instructors responsible for running the training course so that they have a contact in the event of a problem or emergency at the training venue.

Also, we will if requested by the proper authorities share individual information on course attendees with them solely for the purpose of security clearance. If you are booking on behalf of other people, it is your responsibility to explain this to them before completing the booking.
